

Aadhaar Bill 2016

EVALUATED AGAINST THE

National Privacy Principles

Justice A P Shah Committee suggested nine National Privacy Principles in 2012. Does the Aadhaar Bill require that these conditions are satisfied, both for enrolment for and authentication using Aadhaar number?

1	Notice	ENROLMENT	AUTHENTICATION
	Notice provided before collection?	✓	✓
	Information to be collected specified?	✓	✓
	Purpose of collection specified?	✓	✓
	Manner of use specified?	✓	✓
	Process to access and correct provided?	✓	✗
	Security safeguards specified?	✗	✗
	Contact details of privacy officers provided?	✓	✗
	Notified in case of breach ?	✗	✗
	Notified in case of legal access to data ?	✗	✗
	Notified in case of change in privacy policy ?	✗	✗

2	Choice and consent
	Is there an option to opt-out/withdraw consent ?	✗	✗

3	Collection Limitation
	Only information which is necessary is collected?	✗	✗

4	Purpose Limitation
	Data collected and processed to be adequate and relevant to the purpose ?	✗	✗

5	Access and Correction
	Individuals have a right to access their information?	✓	✗
	Can individuals seek correction of their information?	✓	✗
	Can individuals seek deletion of their information?	✗	✗

6	Disclosure
	Disclosure to third parties after consent of individual?	✓	✗

7	Security
	Are security safeguards required to prevent loss, destruction, use, processing, storage, modification, deanonymization, unauthorized disclosure?	✗	✗

8	Openness
	Practices to be implemented as per scale, scope, and sensitivity to the data?	✓	✓

9	Accountability
	Are audits compulsory?	✓	✓
	Are training and education mandated?	✗	✗